Be a Risk Champion!

APRIL 6-8, 2022

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6

- 11:30 a.m. Golf outing – The Ridge course
(Start at 12:30 p.m.; meet at 11:30 a.m.)
- 3:00 p.m. Registration
- 6:30 p.m. Opening reception and dinner

THURSDAY, APRIL 7

- 7:30 a.m. Breakfast buffet followed by opening remarks from chapter presidents
- 8:45 a.m. Communicating With Difficult People
Anne-Marie Amiel, Columbus Consolidated Government
How we handle conflict determines whether any situation can be resolved or will continue to cause problems. This session will help attendees find alternatives to the standard techniques of conflict resolution that do not always work when dealing with difficult personalities.
- 10:45 a.m. A) First Amendment Auditors: Exercising Rights and Wrongs
Patrick Bonnot and Glenn Price, MIRMA
In this session, participants will learn how to identify citizen videographers at the onset, learn what staff should do in these situations, and discover what signage might help protect their cities during an auditor's visit.
- B) Developing a Workplace Violence-Prevention Program
Isaac Monson and Josh Honn, HUB International
The best time to develop a workplace violence-prevention program is before you need one. OSHA reports that more than 2 million people are affected annually by workplace violence. This session will provide resources attendees can take back to their organizations and use.
- 12:00 p.m. Lunch
- 1:00 p.m. A) Five Things That Grab the Media's Attention After an Officer-Involved Shooting
Richard Spiers, Claims Consultant
Officer-involved shootings (OIS) are grabbing the media's and the public's attention very quickly. This session will share five important OIS case aspects that can attract the media's attention right away.
- B) Decreasing Injury Risk at Work
Kristy Robinson and Leslie Borden, ARC Physical Therapy+
Participants will discover the benefits of implementing an early injury intervention program, learn how proper ergonomics can impact injury prevention, and see the benefits of job-analysis reports and their foundation in the post-offer employment testing process.

3:00 p.m. A) Psychological Claims vs. Physical Claims
Katie Clifford, David Menghini, and Ryan Denk, MVP Law

Psychological claims are on the rise from police officers and firefighters in both litigated and nonlitigated claims. During this session, discover the differences between psychological claims and physical claims, and learn how these claims are affecting public-sector clients.

B) Lead Pipe Replacement Is on the Horizon: Be Prepared When It Goes Drip, Drip, BOOM!

Paula Essick and Danielle Tyler, J.S. Held LLC

In this session, participants will gain an understanding of lead-pipe replacement and issues related to drinking water. Come learn whether you need to replace old water pipes and what happens if you hit the wrong pipe.

FRIDAY, APRIL 8

7:30 a.m. Breakfast buffet

8:30 a.m. Cyber Insurance for Public Entities

Peter Simonsen, Charlesworth Consulting, and Jason McMahon, Midwest Public Risk

This session will review cyber risks faced by public entities, steps needed to mitigate these risks, how to procure cyber insurance, and the various types of coverage. Discover real-world examples of cyber incidents and how to prevent them, underwriting challenges, the status of the market, and procurement options.

10:00 a.m. SARS-CoV-2: The Physical and Legal Impacts (Group Panel Discussion)

Steve McManus and Ryan Denk, MVP Law; and Randy Russell, Tara Swaney, and Dawn Kennedy, Select Physical Therapy

This session will be a panel discussion with attorneys and physical therapists discussing the impact of COVID-19 on workers' compensation, general liability, and employment law. Attendees also will receive updated knowledge on recent case law in Missouri and Kansas.

11:00 a.m. Everyone Wins When Employers Care About Employee Health

Anne-Marie Amiel, Columbus Consolidated Government

This presentation will discuss some of the strategies employers can use to facilitate an improvement in the physical and mental health of their employees. Come learn about the potential for reducing the number and expense of workers' compensation claims, how employers can assist employees in seeking treatment for personal health conditions, and ways in which employees can be helped to advance in their own careers.
